

ALLIED AIR COMMAND

BIOGRAPHY

Warrant Officer Sara Catterall Command Senior Enlisted Leader

Warrant Officer Sara Catterall, Royal Air Force (RAF) has been Command Senior Enlisted Leader at NATO's Headquarters Allied Air Command at Ramstein Air Base, Germany, since Sept 2019.

She joined the Royal Air Force in 1995 as an Intelligence Analyst and over her career has served in a variety of Joint Defence roles and operational intelligence specialisations both in the UK and abroad.

She has deployed extensively, including a number of tours in Afghanistan providing direct support to Special Forces and Air operations. In 2011, she received a 3* Commanders Joint Operation Commendation in recognition for intelligence support to tactical operations.

Prior to taking up post, she served at the NATO Combined Air Operations Centre in Uedem, Germany, where she was the Baltic Air Policing Liaison Officer and more recently was the Station Warrant Officer at RAF College Cranwell, the spiritual home of the Royal Air Force.

(Current as of November 2019)