

Curriculum Vitae

Brigadiergeneral Holger Radmann

Deputy Commander CAOC UEDEM
 Deputy Chief of Staff Multinational Air Operations,
 Director JFAC HQ (DEU)

Year	Military Career
1993 – 1994	Flight training at Randolph AFB and weapon system conversion training at Holloman AFB, USA
1995 – 1998	Assigned to the 1st Fighter Squadron (711) at Wittmund Air Base, Germany
1998 – 2002	Instructor at the German Air Force Training Squadron F-4 and 20th Fighter Squadron USAF in Holloman AFB, USA
2002 – 2004	Operations Officer Fighter Wing 71 “Richthofen” at Wittmund Air Base, Germany
2004 – 2006	1st Joint National General/Admiral Staff Officer Course at the Bundeswehr Command and Staff College in Hamburg, Germany
2006 – 2008	Commander of the 2nd Fighter Squadron (712) at Wittmund Air Base, Germany
2008 – 2009	Branch Chief A3 a/b (Training and Operation) at the 4th Air Division in Aurich, Germany
2007 – 2011	Assistant Branch Chief at Air Staff III 3 at the Federal Ministry of Defence in Berlin, Germany
2012 – 2013	Commander of the Flying Group Fighter Wing 71 “Richthofen” at Wittmund Air Base, Germany
2013 – 2015	Liaison Officer for the Chief of the Joint Support Service in Berlin, Germany
2015 – 2018	Commander of the Tactical Air Wing 33 in Büchel, Germany
2018 – 2020	Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff Capability Management at the HQ of the German Air Force in Berlin, Germany
2020 - 2023	Chief of Branch Strategy & Operations II 3 Middle East, Asia and Indo-Pacific Region at the Federal Ministry of Defence in Berlin, Germany
since 2023	Deputy Chief of Staff Multinational Air Operations, Director Joint Force Air Component Headquarter at Air Operations Command, Kalkar and Deputy Comamander CAOC UEDEM

After Brigadier General Radmann joined the German Air Force in 1989 he earned his commission upon graduating from the German Air Force Academy and graduated from Undergraduate Flying Training at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, USA. During his career, Brigadier General Radmann, served in various command assignments and functions within the Federal Ministry of Defence and within the Headquarters of the German Air Force in Cologne and Berlin, Germany. He served as a fighter weapons instructor, weapons and tactics officer, operations officer, squadron commander and flying group commander at the Fighter Wing 71 “Richthofen” at Wittmund Air Base and as the commander of the Tactical Air Wing 33 at Büchel Air Base, Germany. Furthermore, Brigadier General Radmann is a graduate of the UK Higher Command and Staff Course.

In his flying career and as a Staff Officer, Brigadier General Radmann participated in numerous national and multinational exercises and operational deployments. His operational experience includes a tour at the ISAF (2008) as Head of the Joint Operations Center, Regional Command North, Mazar-e-Sharif. He was deployed as contingent commander Baltic Air Policing to Siauliai (2012) and as commander of German contingent Counter DAESH in support of Operation Inherent Resolve (2016).

As an aviator he accumulated over 2.000 flight hours on military and civilian airplanes